Dear Parents and Carers,

ANZAC DAY - 25 APRIL

ANZAC DAY

Our school will hold a special Anzac Day assembly on Friday to pay our respect to the service and sacrifice of soldiers past and present, and to remember particularly the ANZACs who fought and died in the service of our country.

The service will be led by several of our student leaders, including our school captains and vice captains.

Warrant Officer Jacinta Doyle, will speak to the students about the ANZAC tradition and the ideals of courage, endurance and mateship which are still relevant today, for each and every one of us in our daily lives.

Our oldest Year 6 student and youngest Transition student will represent all of us as they lay a wreath in honour of all Australians who have died in war.

READY TO LEARN

Every child's success is everyone's responsibility

Creating Passionate And Inspired Learners To Year 12 And Beyond.

On Tuesday next week (26th April) we are holding a Parent Information Session on 'Talk To Your Brain' which is a teacher resource we have been using this year. This will be held in the library before school from 7:30am-8:00am, with Q & A time from 8:00am-8:15am.

The author/owner/creator of the resource will be at our school to talk to parents about the resource and what we are doing to support our students in their growth and development of Personal and Social Capabilities.

Talk to your Brain is a program designed by teachers, for teachers, to engage young learners in a journey of self-discovery. Addressing vital topics to enhance the Emotional Intelligence of our small humans to assist them in understanding the value they bring to the world. This easy-to-follow resource takes you step by step through a sequence of discussions and activities to develop the power of language and how it impacts on learning and social interactions.

Aligned with the Australian Curriculum Personal and Social Capabilities, Talk to your Brain consists of four modules designed to be easily implemented over four school terms for Preschool to Year 6.

Paired with the "Hello Brain?" children's picture book, these resources form part of our whole school approach to enabling students to regulate their emotions, develop empathy for others, foster a sense of belonging and inclusion for all, and become self-directed in their learning.

What is Self-Talk?

Our thoughts are our self-talk. The language of our children's self-talk can either support their learning, or make learning almost impossible. Our words have power!

Why do our young people need Emotional Intelligence & Growth Mindset?

Learning, Self-esteem, Anxiety, Friendships, Social interactions, Self-belief and Learning (yes, learning is listed twice - it is that important!) are all massively impacted by our self-talk and our ability to understand and manage our emotions.
